

Translating and the Computer 6

The Waldorf Hotel, London, 20th – 21st November 1984

Programme

Introduction

Catriona Picken

Session 1

Chairman: Geoffrey Kingscott

The professional technical translator: new approaches to training

Birgit Rommel

The British Term Bank prototype: user needs, modes of access, and co-operation in development

Lisa E.Price

Session 2

Chairman: Geoffrey Kingscott

International telecommunications

D.W.F.Medcraft

Update on machine translation

Peter Wheeler

Summary of discussion

Pamela Mayorcas-Cohen

Session 3

Parallel Session I: Handling terminology

Chairman: Kees van der Horst

Parallel Session II: Translation aids: how modern technology is changing translation practice for the small translation unit

Chairman: Lanna Castellano

Parallel Session III: Machine translation
Chairman: Veronica Lawson

Selecting a machine translation software vendor
Linn Hedwig Downs

Session 4

Chairman: Barbara Wilson

Office automation and the Teleglobe experience
Linda Crombie-Talhami

Electronic mail
Robert Rooke

Session 5: Product forum

Chairman: Catriona Picken

Session 6

Chairman: John Clews

Handling non-Roman character sets with computers
Hugh McGregor Ross

World scripts (background paper)
John Clews

Automatic speech recognition: fact or fantasy?
Raj Gunawardana

Session 7: Panel discussion

Chairman: Barbara Snell